5. [REDACTED] On 6 March, I talked to Dorothy Fosdick, on the staff of Senator Jackson's Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations. She said the Senator was cutting a tape for his CBS "Face The Nation" program the next day and had asked her to check with me as to what could be said about the deployment of a new type Soviet ICBM. I said this was still very sensitive information and I thought the Senator could do no more than say that despite reports that SS-9 deployment had leveled off, it was much too soon to conclude that the Soviets had called a long-term halt in deployment of all ICBMs.

Today I told Senator Jackson of our concern over some of his comments during his TV appearance yesterday regarding recent Soviet ICBM developments. See Memo for Record.
